

Rosevears Vineyard is perched high on the western slopes of the beautiful Tamar Valley only 15 minutes from the Launceston CBD and provides sweeping panoramic views across the river to Mt Barrow and Ben Lomond.

The breathtaking setting combined with stylish, modern facilities, an excellent selection of the highest quality Tasmanian wine and food and a staff committed to providing service that is second to none all add up to make this a memorable venue for your next function.

Whether you are planning a working board room style retreat, an intimate private dinner for 10 to 20, a cocktail party on the lawn for 100 or a truly memorable reception for 50 to 60 Rosevears Vineyard is the perfect setting.

Rosevears Vineyard Bistro is located in the heart of the vineyard. Our chefs provide a menu with an emphasis on the freshest of local ingredients artfully match to the fabulous wines produced in the region. The sample menu included demonstrates our commitment to serving food of the highest quality delivered with the level of flair and innovation the location demands.

The main building includes a Cellar Door tasting centre that is home to some of Tasmania's finest brands - Pirie Estate, South, Rosevears Estate and Notley Gorge. As part of the Tamar Ridge Estates family you also have access to wines from Tamar Ridge Kayena Vineyard, Devil's Corner and Coombend Estate brands.

To complete the package Rosevears Vineyard Retreat (located on the property) provides a range of 4 star rated 1 and 2 bedroom apartments and studios that will please the most discerning of guests - and all making the most of those stunning Tamar Valley views.
